Harvest Carnival—A Halloween Alternative for Children We Have WAY Too Much Candy! Want Some?

Broken Arrow, Oklahoma—Friday, October 26, from 6 to 9 p.m., Rhema Bible Church proudly presents Harvest Carnival—a Halloween alternative for children that provides a safe, action-packed, candy-filled party for the entire Tulsa/Broken Arrow community. The event will be held at the Ninowski Recreation Center, located next to the Rhema Park on Rhema's campus. Rhema is located on Kenosha (71st Street) just east of Aspen (South 145th East Avenue) in Broken Arrow. Open to infants through fifth-graders and their parents, Harvest Carnival offers 80 game booths and a whopping 5,000 pounds of candy. The games and candy are not only fun—they're free!

There will also be a concession stand selling pizza, nachos, popcorn, pop, and more—so everyone can come hungry and eat at the party. Costumes are encouraged. Everyone who attends can enjoy all the treats without the tricks! Those with questions may visit RhemaBibleChurch.com/harvest or call (918) 258-1588, ext. 2295.

About Rhema Bible Church

Pastored by Kenneth and Lynette Hagin, Rhema Bible Church is a strong family church. Embracing its motto—"living life | unlimited"—Rhema Bible Church offers a wide variety of programs to help nurture and strengthen each member's spiritual, emotional, and social growth. The church, located on the beautiful 110-acre Rhema campus in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, began its full schedule of services in October 1985. Since that time, Rhema Bible Church has grown to become a thriving congregation of approximately 8,000 members. Adult services are held Sundays at 10 a.m. and 6 p.m., and Wednesdays at 7 p.m. In addition, the church offers an exciting Student Ministries program which provides ministry for children and youth—infants through 12th grade.
